LEST WE FORGET...

Daylight Saving Time ends Sunday, November 1. Be sure to turn your clocks BACK one hour Saturday night!

ALL SAINTS DAY NOVEMBER 1

The Christian church sets aside a special Sunday to commemorate the martyrs and saints of every time and place who are a part of the "great cloud of witness" mentioned in the Scriptures.

Good Shepherd's Drive-In Worship Service at 9:30 a.m. on November 1 will be dedicated to congregation members who have passed away this last year. Each will have an ornament engraved with his or her name. After the service, the ornaments will be mailed to the family members of those commemorated.

On this year's All Saints Day, we remember these Good Shepherd members – and others – in our prayers:

Alice F. Riley (1/23/20)
Mary Robertson (2/13/20)
Jean Sundlie (2/22/20)
Walter Robertson (3/7/20)
Dorothy "Dot" Sterling (3/25/20)
Tommie Spence (4/22/20)
Victor "Vic" Milejczak (5/27/20)
Wilbur C. Smith, Jr. (7/4/20)
Virginia "Ginna" Caughman (7/17/20)
Virginia "Gigi" Middlebrooks (9/15/20)
Mildred Louise Hayes (9/27/20)
Wilhemina Edwards (10/8/20)

A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

By the tender mercy of our God,
 the dawn from on high will break upon us,
 to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death,
 to guide our feet into the way of peace.
 —Luke 1:78-79

Last month I wrote to you explaining that God is calling us to new ventures together. Life and ministry during this pandemic are certainly different from life and ministry back in February and March. And as this pandemic continues; even once it ends, life and ministry will be different. God is still leading and guiding us, just as God led and guided us when our forebears founded this congregation. God is leading and guiding us, just as God did during many wonderful years of ministry in this place. And though we have now been forced to live through a relatively fallow and seemingly fruitless time, God will bring us through to a new time of life and ministry together.

In some ways I feel as though we have been stuck in Lent since the pandemic began. During the closure of our church building for public worship, I left the purple paraments up in the sanctuary well beyond Lent since we were not using the liturgical colors to help us mark the passage of the church year. Each time I went into the sanctuary, I noted how appropriate this seemed given what we were going through. The time of solemnity and sacrifice seems to have lasted well into the year for us. The other church seasons have been a blur, quite honestly.

Yet late this month we enter into my favorite of all the church seasons—Advent. I don't know about you, but I am in desperate need of an Advent season these days. I know, I know you are all looking forward to Christmas. I am, as well. Each year, for four long Sundays in Advent I hear the question, "Pastor, when can we sing Christmas hymns?" I love Christmas hymns, too. But hear me out. It is Advent hymns that speak most powerfully and most profoundly to our current situation.

Advent is a time of hopeful waiting. Advent is a time to prepare for God's new works and new life among us. Advent is like watching the dawn break on a new day at the end of a long, cold, dark night. Advent, like no other season of the church year, takes into account how miserable and hopeless our human situation can seem, yet also how powerful and full of promise God's response can be. If this doesn't encapsulate the feel of 2020, I don't know what will!

Consider the second and third verses of People, Look East by Eleanor Farjeon (ELW 248):

Furrows, be glad. Though earth is bare, one more seed is planted there. Give up your strength, the seed to nourish that in the course the flow'r may flourish. People, look east, and sing today—Love, the Rose, is on the way.

Stars, keep the watch. When night is dim, one more light the bowl shall brim, shining beyond the frosty weather, bright as the sun and moon together. People, look east, and sing today—Love, the Star, is on the way.

There is something profoundly beautiful about the hopeful expectation and anticipation of Advent. It is deeply fitting that, as the year gets colder and days get darker, we look with joyful longing toward the coming of Jesus Christ. Like a rose springing up from soil we thought was dead and dormant; like a star shining forth in an otherwise empty sky, Christ comes among us when things seem at their worst.

How perfect this imagery is in this year—a year which in many ways seems like a dead furrow in a field or like a cloudy and starless sky. Indeed, Love is on the way. His name is Jesus Christ our Lord.

We know that in Advent we celebrate Christ's earthly coming, we look for his second coming, and we celebrate his coming among us as we live out our faith together. This year, may this coming of our Lord break into our darkness that much more powerfully. As dark as this year seems at times, may Christ's light shine that much brighter for us.

Christ's light be with you now and always,

Pastor Andrew

COUNCIL PRESIDENT'S UPDATE

This has been a challenging year to say the least. As we entered the 4th quarter of 2020, we continue to struggle with Covid-19 and many decisions. With an uptick of infections, we continue to err on the side of caution. While we had originally hoped that we could re-enter the sanctuary by Reformation, that plan just did not work out. I have heard from several who want us to restart in church services and an equally number who say let's not rush it. I can assure you once the go ahead is given we will re-enter with a service as safe as possible.

The Restart Task Force will be meeting shortly to once again discuss a plan for services. The Worship Life Committee has been asked to look at and plan a service so we would be ready if we received the go ahead. They are working with Pastor Andrew looking at things such as communion and the type of service including music. There are a lot of questions to be considered. We want to be ready when the time comes. And we want you to be comfortable making a decision that is best for you.

The Technical team is also setting up the streaming equipment that was purchased through a grant from our foundation along with gifts from individuals. It will take us a few weeks to get everything set up and configured and tested before we put the stream out on YouTube. Currently that is the only platform we are considering. At this point, I doubt Facebook will be an option. You will be hearing more about this in the coming weeks or hopefully days.

Also remember that the FAB is now open for groups up to 15 people. Bible Study as well as council and some committees are using the FAB regularly. Please schedule with the office before planning your meeting.

If you are not attending Drive-In Worship, give it a try, you might just like it. We have been averaging about 75 people.

Peace
Ed Beaman

SOCIAL MINISTRY EMPHASIS

The Good Shepherd Social Ministry emphasis for November will be Lighthouse for Life and the Children's Advocacy Center in Columbia. Contributions during the month will be divided equally between these local organizations.

Lighthouse for Life has as its mission to raise awareness about the realities of human trafficking while restoring victims to wholeness. Children's Advocacy Center provides services for childhood victims of sexual assault and abuse and their families.

You may send contributions to the church office anytime during the month. Checks should be made to Good Shepherd and designated for social ministry emphasis. For more information about the two organizations, check their websites.

FOOD PANTRY UPDATE

During the month of September, the Food Pantry distributed 29 bags of groceries serving 122 individuals.

2022 CONGREGATIONAL RETREAT PLANNING MEETING

It has been decided by Council that our next congregational retreat will be in 2022. Lutheridge has been contacted and almost any date is available for 2022. If you are interested in attending this retreat, please attend an in-person meeting in the FAB on Sunday, November 1 at 3:00 p.m., to discuss a date to submit to Lutheridge. Any questions, please contact Karen Lucas at 803-730-7651 or email: klucas4@aol.com.

FROM THE PROPERTY COMMITTEE

Progress has been made on the following projects:

1. Narthex Roof Repair: Work will begin as soon as the repairs can be scheduled with the roofing contractor, CE Bourne.
2. Stained Glass Project: The nighttime backlighting of the glass is being reviewed to determine the placement and type of lighting needed.
3. Education Building HVAC Replacement: The old monolithic HVAC system has been replaced by four separate units. The Youth Room unit was installed several weeks ago. The remaining three units for the upper level of the Education Building were installed October 12-14. The old HVAC unit in the equipment room will be removed the week of October 19th. The old electrical panels will then be removed. The new units operate for specific zones, greatly reducing the amount of energy needed to heat and cool the building.

Thanks to all those members who attended this event with their families and a big thank you to all our volunteers who helped set up, decorate their trunks and give out treats to kids.

We are having the Angel Tree Project with no tree. The Dorcus Circle and Social Ministry are hosting the Angel Tree Project to give $25 gift cards to the men at Providence Men's

Home and the Women's Shelter. The cards can be Visa, Amex MC or a card from Walmart. If you would like to wrap them or put in a Christmas bag you can. If you just want to drop off a card at the Church office or bring to Church service starting November 7 that is fine too. There are 67 men and 15 women at the shelters. This may be the only gift that many of them get. Please feel free to write a note of encouragement with your gift card. Thank you for your assistance in the Angel Tree Christmas Project.

Dear Church Members,

Your continued support of Happy Wheels makes us truly thankful that you are allowing us to be an instrument for your ministry to your community. Since 2009, this program has given a new toy or book to over 81,000 children in the hospital. Not only are you and Happy Wheels putting smiles on those children's' faces, you are also touching their families.

Thank you, Judy B.-Volunteer
Happy Wheels

Dear Good Shepherd Lutheran Church,

I am writing to personally thank you for your donation of $125.00 to Senior Resources on September 24, 2020. Our mission is to empower local seniors to remain healthy and independent through services such as Meals on Wheels.

Our Meals on Wheels program not only meets nutritional needs for vulnerable seniors in our community, it also addresses the social isolation felt by many of our clients, now more than ever in the wake of this pandemic. Your support is vital to our ability to continue to provide these life-sustaining services to seniors in our community.

Sincerely,
Dargan Davis, Development Coordinator
Senior Resources

Dear Good Shepherd,

We would like to take this opportunity to let you know how much we appreciate your donations to our students. Your thoughtfulness will never be forgotten. We are grateful for all of your support. Thank you so much for choosing Bradley Elementary School!

May God Bless you always!

Sincerely,
Bradley Elementary School faculty and staff

Dear Good Shepherd Family,

Words cannot express my appreciation for your many acts of love and sympathy following Wilbur's illness and death. The phone calls, beautiful cards, and generous memorials continue to be a comfort to our sons, Trey and David, and to me. Thank you so very much!

With love,
Diane Smith

Drive-In Worship

Good Shepherd attendance for our Drive-In Worship Service on Sunday, October 18. We had 95 people in attendance!

HOLY BAPTISM

For the first time in Good Shepherd's book, there was a Holy Baptism performed during the Drive-In Worship service. Please welcome our newest member, Emerson Atlas Kemp, by infant baptism. Emerson Atlas is the son of Eric and Amy Kemp. His sponsors are Amanda and Wes Snodgrass.

NOVEMBER LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

Virtual and In-Person Adult Bible Study

Pastor Andrew now is offering in-person Bible study in the FAB on Tuesdays at 11:30 a.m. Seating is social distanced and masks are required.

Wednesday Zoom Bible Study will continue to be at 8:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. The topic is the Gospel lesson for the coming Sunday. A Zoom ID and password is sent in a weekly email. Pastor Andrew also sends a weekly Bible Study packet, which is a great resource for members that do not prefer, or do not have Zoom capabilities.

Young Families and Youth Sunday School

We have received some great feedback about Faith 5. Pastor Andrew will continue to send a scripture via email that you can use to start off your week.

These are the 5 Steps:

- Share your highs and lows of the day/week.
- Read a bible verse or story together.
- Talk about how your Bible verse or Bible story might apply to your highs and lows.
- Pray for one another's highs and lows.
- Bless one another before saying goodnight.

K-5th Grade Activity Bags

Activity bags for Kindergarten through 5th grade age children will be located for pick up on the stairs in the Chapel area starting Sunday, November 1. If you would feel more comfortable having a "Porch Drop-off," please e-mail Katie Bostic: katiebrettbostic@gmail.com.

Middle and High School Students

We encourage families with middle and high schoolers to continue using the Faith Lens Blog. It engages youth and young adults in connecting world events with the Bible, faith, and everyday life. You can find it at <https://blogs.elca.org/FaithLens/>

LEARNING COMMITTEE – SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Learning Committee would like to know if there would be any interest in having a Sunday School class in the FAB immediately after the Drive-In Service. The number of attendees would be limited, social distancing practiced, and masks required. If this is something you would be interested in attending, please let Pastor Andrew know when you are leaving Drive-In Worship, email Katie at katiebrettbostic@gmail.com, or leave a message at the church office.

TUESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

Meet in the FAB on Tuesday mornings at 11:30 a.m. for a Bible Study.
Masks and social distancing required. See email from 10-1-2020 for more details.

MEDICINE BOTTLE COLLECTION

Pawmetto Lifeline still has a need for certain bottles. Must be wide mouth (that a quarter can fit through!) and prescription pill bottles with child proof caps.

NO vitamin or supplement bottles, please.

WEDNESDAY ZOOM BIBLE STUDY

Zoom Bible Study will be led by Pastor Andrew each Wednesday at 8:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. A reminder with a meeting link will be sent by email each week.

Deadline to submit articles for December Newsletter is November 16.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

LECTIONARY FOR NOVEMBER 2020

NOVEMBER 1 – ALL SAINTS SUNDAY

All Saints celebrates the baptized people of God, living and dead, who are the body of Christ. As November heralds the dying of the landscape in many northern regions, the readings and liturgy call us to remember all who have died in Christ and whose baptism is complete. At the Lord's table we gather with the faithful of every time and place, trusting that the promises of God will be fulfilled and that all tears will be wiped away in the new Jerusalem.

FIRST READING – Revelation 7:9-17

The book of Revelation is written to seven churches in western Asia Minor during a time of great oppression. Today's reading is a response to the question asked in 6:17: "Who is able to stand?" The writer gives the faithful the assurance of God's protection and a vision of victory.

PSALM – Psalm 34:1-10, 22

Fear the LORD, you saints of the LORD; for those who fear the LORD lack nothing. (Ps. 34:9)

SECOND READING – 1 John 3:1-3

A saint is one who has been set apart by God for God's purposes. God, out of divine love, set us apart to be the children of God. Our holy hope is that we shall see God as God really is.

GOSPEL – Matthew 5:1-12

In the Beatitudes, Jesus provides a unique description of those who are blessed with God's favor. His teaching is surprising and shocking to those who seek wealth, fame, and control over others.

NOVEMBER 8 – 23RD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Today the prophet Amos calls for justice to roll down like waters. Paul urges us to encourage one another with the promised coming of the Lord. Jesus tells the parable of the wise and foolish bridesmaids. Surrounded by the faithful of every time and place, we celebrate Christ's coming in our midst in the word of life and the feast of victory—the marriage feast of the lamb.

FIRST READING – Amos 5:18-24

In the days of Amos, people thought that the day of the LORD would be a time of great victory, but Amos announced that it would be a day of darkness, not light. He said liturgy is no substitute for obedience. The LORD demands justice and righteousness in the community.

PSALM – Psalm 70

You are my helper and my deliverer; O LORD, do not tarry. (Ps. 70:5)

SECOND READING – 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

Some of the Thessalonians are worried that dead Christians will be excluded from the resurrection to eternal life when Christ comes again. Paul reassures them with the word of hope that all Christians, living or dead, will be raised into everlasting life with Christ.

GOSPEL – Matthew 25:1-13

Jesus tells a parable about his own second coming, emphasizing the need for readiness at all times.

NOVEMBER 15 – 24TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Our readings during November speak of the end times. Zephaniah proclaims that the coming day of the LORD will be filled with wrath and distress. Paul says it will come like a thief in the night and urges us to be awake and sober. Jesus tells the parable of the talents, calling us to use our gifts, while we still have time, for the greater and common good. In a world filled with violence and despair, we gather around signs of hope—word, water, bread, and wine—eager to welcome the good news of Christ's coming among us.

FIRST READING – Zephaniah 1:7, 12-18

Zephaniah (like the prophet Amos in last week's first reading) presents the day of the LORD as one of judgment and wrath. Descriptions of the last day in the New Testament include details taken from Old Testament accounts of the day of the LORD.

PSALM – Psalm 90:1-8 [9-11] 12

So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts to wisdom. (Ps. 90:12)

SECOND READING – 1 Thessalonians 5:1-11

Though we do not know and cannot calculate the day of Christ's return, we live faithfully in the here and now as we anticipate the day when we will be given eternal salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ.

GOSPEL – Matthew 25:14-30

Jesus tells a parable about his second coming, indicating that it is not sufficient merely to maintain things as they are. Those who await his return should make good use of the gifts that God has provided them.

NOVEMBER 22 – CHRIST THE KING

On this final Sunday of the church year our gospel is Jesus' great story of judgment. In the end, the faithful are those who served Christ by ministering to those who are poor, hungry, naked, sick, or estranged. In the first reading God is the shepherd who seeks the lost, weak, and injured and feeds them with justice. We gather this day to celebrate the reign of Christ and his victory over death, yet we await the consummation of all things yet to come.

Acknowledging Christ as our merciful ruler, we go forth that his reign may be known in our loving words and deeds.

FIRST READING – Ezekiel 34:11-16, 20-24

Because Israel's kings proved to be bad shepherds, Ezekiel declares that the LORD will assume the role of shepherd in Israel. The LORD will also set over them a shepherd-messiah, "my servant David," who will feed and care for the people.

PSALM – Psalm 95:1-7a

We are the people of God's pasture and the sheep of God's hand. (Ps. 95:7)

SECOND READING – Ephesians 1:15-23

In this passage, God is praised for revealing ultimate divine power in raising Jesus from the dead. The resurrected, exalted Christ is Lord of both the church and the entire universe, now and in the age to come.

GOSPEL – Matthew 25:31-46

Jesus compares himself to a king who moves among his subjects to see how he is treated: what is done for the least of those who belong to his family is truly done for him.

NOVEMBER 29 – FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Stir up your power, and come! The psalmist's plea in Psalm 80:2 has become familiar to us in the Advent prayers. Isaiah wants God to rip the heavens open. Both cry out for an apparently distant, angry God to show up, to save, to restore. When we hear Jesus describing the coming of the Son of Man with stars falling from heaven, it can sound dire and horrible, not like anything we would ever hope for. But when we really look at the suffering of people God loves, we can share the hope that God would tear open the heavens and come.

FIRST READING – Isaiah 64:1-9

This lament comes from a people who have had their hopes shattered. The visions of a rebuilt Jerusalem and a renewed people of God, spoken of in Isaiah 40–55, have not been realized. Instead, the people experience ruin, conflict, and famine. This lament calls God to account—to be the God who has brought deliverance in the past.

PSALM – Psalm 80:1-7, 17-19

Let your face shine upon us, and we shall be saved. (Ps. 80:7)

SECOND READING – 1 Corinthians 1:3-20

As the Christians in Corinth await the advent of Jesus, Paul reminds them how the Lord has already enriched them through spiritual gifts and will continue to strengthen them until the coming day of the Lord.

GOSPEL – Mark 13:24-37

Jesus encourages his followers to look forward to the day when he returns in power and glory to end all suffering.
